C-6PUBLICATIONS AND FORMS*6.1 GENERAL INFORMATION

Publications and forms applicable to this contract are contained herein.

6.1.1 TYPES

The publications and forms have been coded as mandatory (M) or advisory (A). The Contractor is obligated to comply with those publications and use those forms coded as mandatory. The Contractor shall be guided by those publications or use those forms coded advisory to the extent necessary to accomplish requirements in this Contract. All publications and forms listed will be provided by the Government at the start of the contract. The Contractor shall establish and update, as required, a file of all required publications listed in this Subsection as well as those cited in each Functional Area. Supplements or amendments to listed publications from any organizational level may be issued during the life of the Contract.

6.1.2 PROVISIONS

The Contractor shall ensure that all publications are posted and up-to-date. Upon completion of the Contract, the Contractor shall return to the Government all issued publications. The Contractor shall accomplish the tasks set forth in this Contract in accordance with the references listed and in accordance with the following guidelines:

- If there is a conflict between Section C and the cited references, Section C shall control.
- If there is a conflict between or among two or more such references, those coded mandatory shall control over those coded advisory; between or among those similarly coded, those issued by a higher authority shall control over those issued by a lower authority; and between or among those issued at the same level of authority, those with a later date of issue shall control over those with earlier dates of issue.
- Any task set forth in any such reference which calls for the exercise of discretionary government authority that cannot be delegated shall be subject to the final approval of the government official having such authority.
- All publications and forms will be current issue.
